SUMMER CONCERT SERIES RETURNS DOWNTOWN JUNE 3

Free weekly event to showcase variety of music

GREENVILLE (SC) – Music fans can enjoy live musical entertainment all summer long at the South Carolina BLUE Reedy River Concerts. The free series returns to the TD Stage behind the Peace Center and will showcase 13 weeks of local and regional musical entertainers, including The Bad Popes, The Marcus King Band, Mystic Vibrations and True Blues. The summer series kicks off June 3 and runs every Wednesday through August from 7 p.m. – 9 p.m.

Concert attendees are invited to come early, bring lawn chairs, blankets and a picnic. Food trucks will also be on-site throughout the season, including Thoroughfare, Chuck Truck and ASADA. Pets are not allowed at City special events. Individuals consuming alcohol at the event must purchase a $1 wristband. For more information visit events.greenvillesc.gov or follow the event on Facebook and Twitter. A complete schedule of this season's concerts is listed below.
